

County Intergenerational Poverty—Action Form

This tool may be utilized to support the accountability of committee members in making progress toward the development of a community plan to address intergenerational poverty. Forms may be distributed at the start of each meeting to allow members to identify tasks throughout the duration of the meeting. To ensure accountability, facilitators may ask each member to publicly identify one task they intend to complete by the next meeting.

Name:

Date:

What will you do between now and the next session? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What will you do? What are the steps to getting it done? How will you do it? 	With Whom? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Who is needed to assist in achievement of the task 	When? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> When will this task be completed 	Progress

